85RF DECO™

If you have ever tried to install a standing seam snow guard and became frustrated with alignment, this product will solve the problem. Designed to be part of a two-part installation system with any of the most popular S-5!® clamps, Levi's 85RF Snow Defender aligns correctly on the seam connection every time. The 85RF is designed to combine the versatility of the S-5!® clamp systems with the beauty and durability of the Snow Defender™ series. It adapts quickly to the clamps using one bolt that is easily accessed from the top and aligns squarely every time.

A versatile snow guard that fits vertical folded seam profiles with S-5! clamps. Works with S-5 N Grip, S-5 N 1.5, S-5 NH1.5, S-5 H-90, S-5 S, S-5 V, S-5 U, S-5 Z, and S-5 T (sold separately). It's made of stainless steel in the USA, available in 40 plus color finishes, and the 85RF features
